My dear Sir,

In going through certain papers, I have found some pieces of Scottish paper money, and also some German money, the latter of which, I believe, is absolutely valueless. In case, however, that any of the items interest any of your members, I am sending them on, and shall be much obliged to you if you will accept them from me, as they are of no service to me, and they may perhaps please some member of your Society.

Yours truly,

Leo C Williamson

Dear Dr.Williamson:

Thank you very much for your note of March 29th, and for the pieces of paper money which accompanied it. We are very glad to have these for our collection as it is always possible in the event that some of them should prove to be duplicates, to trade these with collectors for other specimens which we do not have, and thus build up our own collection. We greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending them to us.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.
